MAIN TITLE:

"THE A. B. C. OF SAFETY."

Produced and Distributed by Ford Motion Picture
Laboratories
Copyrighted 1922 by Ford Motor Company

SUB-TITLES:

1. This film illustrates the teaching of accident and fire prevention in the public elementary schools of Detroit. All grades participate in this instruction.
2. The first day of school.
3. Mrs. Thornton introduces Ted to his new principal.
4. "I am so afraid to have Ted cross the streets. There are so many accidents nowadays."
5. "You needn't worry about that, Mrs. Thornton. Come to the window and I will show you why."
6. "See how the janitor regulates traffic to protect the children."
7. "Older boys help the little ones across."
8. Regular safety instruction begins as soon as the child enters school. Traffic games in the kindergarten of the Balch school.
9. The traffic policeman.
10. The dangerous left turn.
11. A dramatization to impress on the children the danger of carelessly running into the streets after a ball.
12. "You ought to know better than to be so careless."
13. Captain Brown of the Detroit Fire Department tells the pupils of the second grade how to "turn in" a fire alarm ---
14. "Break the glass! Turn the Key! Open the door! Pull down the hook! Stay there till the fireman comes!"
15. And shows how to do it with a real fire alarm box.
16. Captain Brown's talk is followed by making cardboard fire alarm boxes in the art room.
17. Instructions are written in the penmanship class.
18. A dramatization in the auditorium of the Balch Plateon School. "See the live wire!".
19. "Don't touch it. I'll push it out of the way with a dry stick. Run for the lineman."
20. "Keep the girls away -- a live wire."
21. The lineman arrives.
22. How to enter and leave a street car.

(#2 - The A B C of Safety)

23. Patrolman Brown of the Detroit Police Department gives regular talks in the Fourth and Fifth grades on accident prevention.
24. Pupils of the sixth grade in a safety play. Scene -- a doctor's office filled with accident cases.
25. "I was playing on the railroad when a freight train suddenly backed up and I was nearly killed."
26. "Remember the Safety A. B. C. - Always Be Careful"
27. "These people were in an automobile and tried to get ahead of a train at a crossing".
28. "My advice is:- Remember the Slogan 'Stop guessing and be sure'".
29. A school safety bulletin board.
30. The pupils' traffic court at the Russell School, which meets each week. The clerk of the court announces the first case - "Russell School vs. George Bowen, Francis Thomas and William Daley, charged with hitching."
31. "You do solemnly swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth."
32. The prosecuting attorney states their offense.
33. "Don't you see how easily you might have been killed or seriously hurt?"
34. The judges are eighth grade pupils.
35. One of the judges takes the offenders into the hall for further discussion.
36. "We are very sorry and promise not to hitch again."
37. "Russell School vs. John Holley and Fred Wilkins, charged with roller skating in the streets."
38. "You have no right to take chances. Do you want to be crippled or killed?"
39. On trial for jay walking. The attorney gives the warning, "Cross the street this way?"
40. "Not this way".
41. A traffic survey of the Russell School neighborhood was made by the eighth grade to find danger points. The boys discuss its results.
42. "We need a man here."
43. "During school hours, 357 autos and wagons pass this point."
44. Life saving instruction in the pool of the Balch Elementary school."
45. The boys are taught how to break the grip of a drowning person and then save him.
46. First get the water out of his lungs.
47. And then use artificial respiration.

THE END.
